Town Hall and Municipal College, Portsmouth.—The Town Hall is a very fine building in the classical style with tower 240 feet high and a magnificent flight of steps. It was built in 1890. The statue of Queen Victoria in front of it is by Alfred Drury (1903). In Park Road, leading from the Town Hall to Portsea Hard and the Royal Dockyard, another fine pile of buildings includes the Municipal College, the Public Library and the Corporation Baths.
